1. injection curve

- mathematical representation of permanent dependency of injection capacity of stored energy of the gas at a given time

RV_{SBU} WV_{SBU}	Q_{UTIS,SBU} Q_{INJ,SBU}	% RV_{SBU} % WV_{SBU}	% Q_{UTIS,SBU} % Q_{INJ,SBU}
kWh	kWh/dan - kWh/day	% kWh	% kWh/dan - % kWh/day

2. Withdrawal curve

- mathematical display on the depending permanent capacity of withdrawal of the stored energy of the gas at a given time

Calculation of working volume fill up level (WV_{SBU}) and the associated withdrawal capacity (Q_{WITH,SBU}) are based on the rounded % value. Because of the rounding there are possible differences in relation to the reported absolute values listed in the table.

Hourly injection capacity ($Q_{INJ,SBU}/h$) or hourly withdrawal capacity ($Q_{WITH,SBU}/h$) represents 1/24 of daily capacity and is calculated in the following way:

- $Q_{INJ,SBU}/h = \frac{Q_{INJ,SBU}/day}{24}$ hourly injection capacity

SBU service Confirmation number: _____

- $Q_{WITH,SBU}/h = \frac{Q_{WITH,SBU}/day}{24}$ hourly withdrawal capacity
